MILLER SERVICE SINCE 1865

Aaron K. Miller, a farmer and cabinet maker living near the village of Horatio, Darke County, Ohio started the Miller Funeral Service in the year 1865.

In those early days the funeral equipment was very crude and the coffins hand made. The hearse consisted of a one-horse dray and the modern way of embalming was unheard of.

In 1895 I.B. Miller, a son of Aaron K. Miller moved to Gettysburg and started a furniture and undertaking business.

Clarence J. Miller, a son of I.B. Miller was practically raised in the business and learned in his early business career that integrity and fair dealing unto all was the only way to success. The motto of Miller service is "Live and let live," which has been practiced all through the years of Miller's service.

Miller service in Greenville started in 1917 and since the admission of Homer E. Miller and Chester B. Miller into the firm, it made the fourth generation in the family to pursue this calling.
